An experienced promoter from the cold reaches of the north-east United States, DJ Trolld (pronounced dee-jay troll-dee) began his DJ career in 2002 after spending his free time throwing parties and organizing underground events.

Using his experience running a production business (A-Team Productions), promoter, and a true fan of house music, Trolld's style became a party rocking blend of remix-heavy progressive, electro, and deep house mixed with a little bit of breaks and trance elements -- Trolld's sound is an enticing blend of contrasts that expand the mental and move the dance floor.

With regular performances and a weekly radio show broadcasted in two cities (The uvMix) and online for download, he wanted to expand his horizons and experience what the world has to offer.

This took him first to Tokyo and now to Bangkok, Thailand where he looks forward to sharing his collection of music and love of dancing!
